JURY DECLARES MRS. HALL GUILTY

Murder in Second Degree with Ten Years' Imprisonment.

SOLITARY IN A CELL

Attorneys for Woman Note Exceptions in Many Points and Will Take Appeal to Supreme Court.

Louisa,, Va., August 10.—Mrs. Victor Hall was Saturday afternoon found guilty of second degree murder and her punishment fixed at ten years in the penitentiary, on the charge of killing her husband on April 15 at Green Springs. Attorney M. J. Fulton, of Richmond, concluded the case for the prosecution at 3 o'clock and one hour later the verdict was rendered by the jury.

The Hall murder mystery was the most sensational case ever heard in Louisa County and will be regarded as one of the famous criminal cases of Virginia. While the lack of motive was never in evidence, the circumstances leading up to the crime and the actions of the prisoner after the murder made a chain of evidence that neither the eloquence nor the skill of the two learned attorneys could overcome.

It was learned that Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hall were alone on the lower floor of their home on the night of April 14. The store of W. R. Dunkum, across the Chesapeake and Ohio railway tracks from the Hall home, was discovered on fire at midnight. The store was completely destroyed, and at 4 o'clock the alarm was given by Mrs. Hall that her husband had been shot. The dead man's pistol was found in the bureau drawer in the bedroom, and the body was found just outside the bedroom, with a bullet hole in the back of the head.

The coroners inquest did not mention any one as the possible murderer. Detectives and county officials went to work on the case and on May 15 a special Grand Jury indicted Mrs. Hall.

The accused woman, in describing the killing, said her husband was awakened at 4 o'clock by some one knocking at the store door. He got up and went from his bedroom to the store adjoining. In a short while Mrs. Hall said she heard her husband cry out, "Oh, Lordy," and this was followed by a pistol shot. When she opened the door she found her husband "all crumpled up" on the floor. Her explanation was that a burglar shot him.

The burglary theory was exploded as being utterly improbable. Mrs. Hall moved a lot of things out of her house on May 14 and that night the house was discovered to be on fire on the inside, fifteen minutes after she left the house with the family. It was contended by the prosecution that Mrs. Hall set the house afire to burn up the physical evidence of the murder.

The case attracted widespread attention, largely because a woman was accused of the terrible crime. The trial lasted two weeks, lacking one day, and developed a brilliant legal battle. M. J. Fulton, of Richmond, assisted Commonwealth's Attorney Bibb and Hill Carter, of Richmond, who assisted in the defense of Henry Clay Beattie, assisted R. Lindsay Gordon for the defense.

The scene in court after the verdict was rendered was very pitiable. Mrs. Hall broke down completely, while one of her little daughters clung to Judge Shackleford and begged piteously for her condemned mother. It was possibly the saddest scene ever witnessed in Louisa County.

Attorney Gordon announced that he would appeal the case to the Supreme Court.

It is understood that efforts will be made to get the Commonwealth not to prosecute two alleged charges of arson against Mrs. Hall, one to charge her with burning the station building at Green Springs and the other with attempting to burn her own home.

Mrs. Hall rested fairly well Saturday night, it was reported yesterday morning, ate a hearty breakfast sent to her from the Louisa Hotel. Later she held a short conference with her attorney, R. Lindsay Gordon, and then bade good-by to her eldest daughter, Essie Dunkum, who had spent the night with her. It was an affecting scene, though Essie did not succumb to the violent emotion which overcame her sister, Mamie, when the verdict of second degree murder was brought in by the jury on Saturday afternoon.

By order of Judge George S. Shackelford, no one will be allowed again to remain with Mrs. Hall, though her family will be permitted to visit her occasionally. Hereafter she must spend her days in solitary confinement. She will remain in the Louisa County Jail pending an appeal, which may be taken at any time within sixty days of the conviction. Attorney Hill Carter will argue on his motion to have the verdict set aside as contrary to the law and evidence on Thursday, and the motion, it is predicted, will be refused by Judge Shackelford. The next step will be the preparation of the appeal, and the case will then go for a hearing before the Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals. One of the main grounds for appeal will be the fact that Judge Shackelford permitted the introduction of evidence in connection with the last pantry fire in the Hall home, lighted by Mrs. Hall, the Commonwealth claims, to destroy the last vestige of evidence which would connect her with the murder of her husband.

To add to her woes, an insane negro woman was yesterday morning placed in a cell adjoining that of Mrs. Hall. The woman was so violent that she had to be placed in a strait-jacket. Her maniacal cries could be heard all over the village, and must prove a trying ordeal to the other woman.

FIGHT AT A CAMP MEETING.

Alexandria Negro Brought to Alexandria Hospital in a Serious Condition.

A serious cutting scrape took place at Warwick, four miles south of Alexandria, on the Washington-Virginia electric railway, yesterday afternoon, during which more than a dozen negroes were engaged in wielding razors with murderous intent. Henry Pollard, who resides in Alexandria, was so badly cut up that he is expected to die at any moment, and all of the participants received severe slashes.

Pollard was brought to the Alexandria Hospital, at 7 o'clock last night in a dying condition. There were more than a dozen severe cuts on his head and body. He accused Samuel Jackson and a woman named Fultz Reed of having cut him.

A big camp meeting is in progress at Warwick and there were several thousands negroes present yesterday. The campgrounds are only a short distance from Collingwood Beach, commonly known as "Razor Beach," because of serious riots there a number of years ago during which several negroes were cut to death with razors.

AUSTRIANS DESTROY FORTS.

Fortifications Leveled by Fire of Warships—Attempts to Reply.

Paris, August 10.—Details of the bombardment of Antivari, Montenegro, received here today, indicate that the the city's fortifications were utterly leveled by the destructive fire from Austrian warships.

Montenegrin troops attempted to reply with small arms, and one of the Austrian cruisers then turned its fire on the city proper, destroying a number of houses. The naval station, with all buildings, was destroyed. The wireless towers were rendered useless, several being blown up by explosive shells. The city's electric lighting plant was badly damaged.

Montenegrins took refuge in the hills. The cruisers made no attempt to land men, and after they had silenced the Montnegrin batteries and troops, withdrew from the harbor.

Montenegrin troops continued their victorious march into Bosnia today, capturing a number of cities.

BILL AMED AT CIVIL SERVICE

Amendment to Postoffice Appropriation Bill Means Much.

POWER OF THREE MEN

Control 250,000 Offices—Would Place Power of Appointment in Hands of Postmaster.

Washington, August 10.—"If the amendment to the postoffice appropriation bill, which has just been passed by the house, giving authority to postmasters to dismiss all civil service clerks and employ those who may be desired, is passed by senate," said a leading member of Congress, "it means that the death of the civil service commission is close at hand, and that the efforts of certain "spoilsmen" are about to be successful."

Stripped of technicalities, the amendment to the Moon bill, which has just been adopted, this amendment having been proposed by Representative Cullop, of Indiana, kills the civil service with one mighty blow. This action means that, so far as the postoffices throughout the country are concerned, whether they be located in Chicago New York, Boston, Philadelphia, or some of the other large cities, or whether they are at the smallest cross-roads settlements, civil service hereafter will become a dead letter and that the only authority over the many thousands of employes will be the postmaster himself—the man who appoints them.

"Already the civil service commission," Mr. Cullop said, "controls more than 250,000 offices in this country. The salaries of these are enormous. The desire to retain the office and the power conferred is great. That is too much power to be placed in the hands of a commission composed of three men. The salaries reach into the millions. That power must be decentralized. Some day it will became a menace to the administration of the government. It is powerful enough now to control the votes of many of the States of the Union. It can dictate to these officeholders how they shall act in the political campaigns. It is not the number of officeholders alone subservient to the wants and desires of this commission but added to this great number are those dependent upon them for subsistence and those who are interested in these persons holding their positions.

"Civil service has in the past been employed for political purposes to advance political fortunes, and it will, if the power is not removed, be done so again."

If the amendment is finally agreed upon, it means the immediate end of the commission.

ACCIDENT ON SOUTHERN.

Freight Sideswipes Work Train Caboose at North Garden.

Traffic on the main line of the Southern Railway was resumed at 7 o'clock Saturday morning, after being at a standstill for nearly nine hours, due to a wreck at 10 o'clock Friday night at North Garden.

While the caboose of a work train was standing on the siding at North Garden, with Conductor Howell Lewis, of Owensville, this county, Engineer Joseph S. Young and Fireman Whit. Phillips, of this city, asleep in the caboose, a northbound freight loaded with watermelons came along on the main line and sidewiped the caboose. Fortunately, the three occupants of the caboose escaped with slight injuries. Several cars were derailed and hundreds of watermelons were scattered along the track.

Six passenger trains were delayed by the wreck.

RESULTS OF WAR.

Prices of Produce in Berlin Have Doubled During Past Few Days.

London, August 10.—Arrivals from Germany report that when the full levy of all males between the ages of twenty and thirty years is complete it is estimated that about 5,000,000 Germans will be at war or ready.

Prices at Berlin are said to be rushing up fast. The government has tried to fix the price of rye, wheat, flour, maize and salt but still the cost of living has doubled. The families of the reservists have to live somehow.

The government has issued forms under which a poverty stricken wife may apply for an allowance, with something extra for every child under fifteen years of age.

The government also has issued regulations for the billeting of soldiers in private houses, the payment ranging from $1.75 a day for the lodging of officers, down to 25 cents for privates. But this is little against the expense or the trouble.

Then there is the harvest. It is ripe. A good deal is cut and tied in sheaves. Bands of students and schoolboys have volunteered to gather it in. Women toil day and night in the fields, but still the loss of food is incalculable.

Before mobilization began on August 2, all trains to Berlin were crowded to bursting. Every well-to-do family, away on holidays, came hurrying back. All their luggage was lost. At every station trunks and portmanteaus stand piled up in enormous heaps.

The main Friederichstrasse station is so cramped that luggage has overflowed into the square and lies exposed to man and rain. Tuesday, the stationmaster told one traveler that his portmanteau was one of 7,200 lost in Berlin alone. All day long wistful owners wander among these mountains of possessions digging as if for treasure. Cabs, taxis and trams have nearly all stopped. The men have joined their companies, and every horse that can crawl tries to trot with the army now.

JAPAN'S POSITION.

Believed Island Kingdom Is About to Participate in War.

London, August 10.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail says:

"It is generally believed that Japan intends to take an active part in the war. A government pronouncement is expected hourly."

A Tokyo dispatch to the News and Leader says:

"An ultimatum has been issued in conformity with—"

The remainder of the message evidently was deleted by the censor. It is suggested that the deleted portion had reference to the treaty between Great Britain and Japan.

Tokyo, August 9.—The first and second squadrons of the Japanese fleet put out to sea this morning. Admiral Dewa is in command. The destinaton of the fleet is kept secret. There have been reports that a German squadron was threatening British shipping in Eastern waters.

AMERICAN WOMAN TRAPPED.

Detroit, August 10.—At least two American women were trapped in the city of Muelhausen, Alsaac-Lorraine, when that town was captured by the French.

They were Mrs. Harrison Geers, of Detroit, wife of counsel general of the Grand Trunk railroad, and her daughter, Baroness Adolph Von Urff, wife of Baron Von Urff, second in command of the German forces which retreated the city.

Mrs. Geers arrived in Muelhauseen July 26th to visit her daughter. Since the capture of the city and the retreat of the German forces, Geers has been unable to learn anything of the fate of his relatives. He sent an appeal today to United States Consul General Jay White, at Naples, Italy, a brother of Mrs. Geers, asking him to make inquiry.

FRENCH ADVANCE TOWARD METZ

KAISER TO HEAD ARMY

Great Battle Imminent—Engagement Said to Be Pending Between French and Germans.

Paris, August 10.—Throwing a column across the Rhine to check a threatened Austrian attack along the Swiss border, General Joffre, commanding the French army of invasion, is moving into battle with the German Army of the Upper Rhine at Neu Briesach.

The Germans are massed in force east of Colmar and south of Strassburg.

A general battle is expected today that may settle the control of Alsace, while brisk skirmishes are continuing between the advance guards.

Ferney and Colmar have fallen before the brilliant advance of the French invaders, following the remarkable coup which gave them the fortress of Muelhausen.

Ferney is in the department of Ain and is is situated at the base of Jura mountain range, only a few miles from the Swiss border, and 100 miles southwest of Muelhausen.

Another engagement is pending between French and German troops in Lorainne below Saarburg. Baccarat reported hearing cannonading in the direction of Montigny. The French artillery is supporting an attacking column engaging Germans advancing from Saarburg.

Baccarat is fifteen miles southeast of Luneville and in the department of Muerthe et Moselle, the first French soil invaded by the Germans.

A third point of attack has been opened by the French army on the Lorraine frontier assuming the aggressive by a march on Metz.

The Germans are dammnig the Seille river, a tributary of the Moselle, which forms part of the boundary of Lorraine, in an attempt to check the French advance.

German cavalry, supported by infantry nad artillery, have driven the French cavalry patrol from the little border town of Longuyon, in the department of Muerthe et Moselle. The German attack, which was in the nature of a reconnaissance, was not persisted in after the French chasseurs abandoned the town.

Capture by the French army of Colmar was confirmed today. The fighting is said to have been desperate with the German losses far in excess of the French.

With the Belgian successes against the Germans, the taking of Colmar means the outflanking of the German invading army.

Desperate fighting marked the wresting from German troops of the passes at Bonhomme St. Marie, on the frontier below Muelhausen. War office reports say the French now occupy the village of St. Marie aux Mines. Fighting continues all along the line today.

The total French losses in their defeat of the German and capture of Altkrich was only 100 killed and wounded, according to official announcement by the war office.

Heavy re-enforcements for the French advance are already in the department of the Vosgea.

Paris, August 10.—Kaiser Wilhelm is reported at Aix-la-Chappelle, prepared to assume supreme command of the German army that is trying to force the passage of Belgium and Luxemburg. This means, the military experts here say, that the real test of the allies is at hand.

The English, French, and Belgian armies that have concentrated on Namur and the line extending from that point across to a point in Luxemburg, which is not revealed, will have to check the real German army, military experts here believe, as the presence of the Kaiser means that the crack Prussian infantry, heretofore believed to have been in reserve, will attempt to push south along the Meuse River.

Liege City is held by the Germans, but the forts still hold out against the invaders. The fortifications, however, are completely invested and can no longer figure materially in opposing the German advance. It is expected that a German force will besiege them, while the main German army moves south.

The Liege garrison, with its re-enforceemnts retreated, the war office says, for strategic reasons, and is now falling back on Namur, where the French army is in force.

GREAT WAR HAS COME.

Italy, Holland and Roumania May Soon Be in Ring.

London, August 10.—The Spectator says:

"The great war has come, as every sensible person knew it would come—very suddenly, without apparent reason. Germany and Austro-Hungary are already at war with Russia, France, Great Britain, Belgium and Servia. At any moment Germany may be at war with Holland. Italy and Roumania are almost certain to come in as soon as Russian troops appear in strength on their frontiers. Russia wants Transylvania and its 4,000,000 Roumanians now oppressed by Austria. Denmark and Switzerland may very easily be forced to take a hand, for the small powers are beginning to realize that the issue for them is one of life or death. If the Germans win there will be no place left for the little independent nations. They know that they will always have a genuine friend and protector in Great Britain.

"What caused the war? Our answer is that Germany was ready and determined. She thought that we, Russia and France, were neither ready nor determined, and she, therefore, struck. Germany began her preparations for war as soon as the Kiel Canal was finished, that is, as soon as, in her belief, her readiness was at its maximum.

'The German government has always been a firm believer in the importance of material preparation, as well as in the idea that war is not a matter of self-defense."

WAYS AND MEANS TO RAISE REVENUE

Falling Off of Imports Causing Serious Loss in the Revenue.

WAR TAX INEVITABLE

No Definite Means Considered by Committee, but Whiskey, Beer, Tobacco, Etc., May Require Stamps.

Washington, August 10.—Although the United States is at peace, legislative leaders now regard the levying of a "war tax" as inevitable. Prospects that the European conflict, will be prolonged and that it will materially reduce, for years to come, the imports of this country, make it necessary to adopt emergency measures for the raising of revenue.

Majority Leader Underwood, author of the new tariff law, admits that the falling off in the imports from Europe will be such that Congress must begin to think of other means of bringing in money. Mr. Underwood said today that no definite plan has been considered, but the impression in legislative circles is that a stamp tax will be imposed, as in the Spanish-American war. Whiskey, beer, tobacco, checks, mortgages, and other legal documents will most likely be penalized for revenue-raising purposes.

"There is no immediate need of passing an emergency taxation bill," said Mr. Underwood, "for there is a good surplus in the Treasury now. But before the session ends it is practically certain we will have to pass some sort of an emergency measure. Our imports necessarily will be greatly reduced by the war abroad, but we can run along probably for three or four months, without feeling the direct effect of the falling off. I have made no plans for raising additional revenue, although it is a matter which we are considering, of course."

Mr. Underwood called attention to the old law permitting the sale of Panama Canal bonds, but the Democratic party is against bond issues when they can be avoided, and, although about $200,000,000 of such bonds might be sold, it is understood that a "war tax" is preferred by the Democratic leaders.

Rough estimates are that the European war will reduce imports about one-third.

FIGHT OVER HIGHWAY.

Alexandria County in a Legal Fight Over Route.

The Jefferson District Citizens' Association, of Alexandria County, will take issue with the recently organized Jefferson District Good Roads Association in the controversy over the route of an experimental road in Alexandria County, to be built by the Federal government, one-half of the expense to be borne by Jefferson District. A call has been issued for an open-air mass meeting tonight in Del Ray under the auspices of the Citizens' Association, when it is expected that the government survey against which the Good Roads Association is protesting, will be approved. In event of bad weather, the meeting will be held in Mount Vernon schoolhouse, near Hume Station. Though receiving but little encouragement from Logan Waller Page, director of roads of the Agricultural Department, the executive committee of the Good Roads Association has filed a further protest against the government survey. The Good Roads Association wants the money expended on existing roads from Arlington, passing through Mt. Ida, Braddock Heights, and Rosemont, connecting with King street, Alexandria, at the Union Station. The present route provides for a road from Arlington to Hume Station, a mile north of the city, the eventual connection with Alexandria to be at North Washington street. The executive committee of the Good Roads Association threatens to take legal steps to prevent the use of $30,000 of the Jefferson District road fund in an experimental road.

COURT OUT OF DOORS.

Justice James Allen of Vienna, has made himself the ways of judicial procedure by holding court out of doors during the hot weather. Twice last week the shady lawn of his home was the scene of public trials, the attendance rivaling that of a lawn social. The innovation has the approval of lawyers, witnesses and the parties in controversy, and the fresh air undoubtedly contributes to a saner view of the knotty points involved.

A son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Ball, of Alexandria County.

HONORS TO MRS. WILSON

Bells Toll as Funeral Train Enters Union Passenger Station This Afternoon.

As a mark of respect to the memory of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the President of the United States, the bells of Alexandria will be tolled as the funeral bearing her remains pass through Alexandria this afternoon. Mayor Thomas A. Fisher, issued instructions yesterday to have bells in the city hall and the fire bells toll when the train reaches Potomac yards and continue until it has passed south of the city limits. Arrangements were also made to have the bells of the First Baptist Church, the Second Presbyterian Church, Christ Church and St. Mary's Catholic Church ring as soon as the city hall bells commence.

Mayor Fisher has invited the members of City Council, the Board of Aldermen and representative citizens to accompany him to the Union Station this afternoon to be present when the funeral train arrives at that point.

The train bearing Mrs. Wilson's remains will leave Washington at first section of Southern Railway train, No. 29, departing at 4.35 o'clock. It is due to reach Alexandria at 4.50 o'clock.

DEATH OF MRS. IDEN.

Mrs. Margaret A. Iden, widow of Captain Jas. Iden, died last evening at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Herring, 208 South Payne street.

She was 82 years old and is survived by three daughters and one son, Miss Laura Iden, Mrs. A. J. Pohl, Mrs. M. M. Herring and George R. Iden. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

Interesting Exercises at Second Baptist Church Next Sunday.

The dedication services of the new Second Baptist Church at King and Peyton streets, will be held next Sunday. An invitation to attend was received by the First Baptist Church yesterday, and there will be no services in that church next Sunday in order that the members may be present in the Second Church.

There will be services at 9, 10 and 11 A. M., and at 8 P. M.

A special program of exercises will be rendered at 9 A. M., in the Sunday school.

Rev. Dr. W. F. Fisher, formerly pastor of the First Baptist Church, will deliver an address at 10 A. M.

At the 11 o'clock service Dev. Dr. R. T. Carland will speak, and at 8 o'clock P. M., Rev. G. W. McDaniell will occupy the pulpit.

SULTRY SUNDAY.

Old Sol Made His Power Felt—Mercury Well up in Nineties.

Yesterday was decidedly one of the most unpleasant of the season and perspiring Alexandrians remained up to a late hour at night, knowing that it was almost useless to court sleep.

The maximum temperature was 93 degrees reached at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The minimum was 73 degrees at 5 o'clock in the morning. The temperature was 83 degrees which is 7 degrees above normal.

A cool wave moving from the northwest promises some relief from high temperatures prevailing through the Middle West and the Eastern States. Preceded by thunderstorms, the cooler weather should reach the Valley States today, the Weather Bureau experts said, and extend to northern points along the Atlantic coast by late tonight. The showers are expected to cause somewhat lower temperatures in the Middle Atlantic States by Tuesday.

Thunder showers will continue during much of the week over the South Atlantic and Gulf States. There will also be local thunder showers early in the week from the Lake region and upper Ohio Valley eastward, reaching the Atlantic Coast about Tuesday.

OPEN MEETING TONIGHT.

Speeches by Prominent Men to Trades Council at 7.30 O'clock.

The Alexandria Trades Council will hold an open meeting tonight at 7.30 o'clock.

Mr. Hoffman, of the Brewery Workers' Union, and James O'Connell, President of the Federation of Labor, will deliver addresses on the occasion.

DAIRY INSTRUCTION CAR.

Will Visit 53 Points in Virginia, Where Demonstrations Will Be Given.

Charlottesville, Va., August 10.—Southern Railway Company announces that, in order to further encourage the development of dairying in Virginia, it will send its special "dairy instruction car" over its lines in the State for another complete tour. Commencing here August 24, the car will visit fifty-three points in all sections of the State served by Southern Railway and Danville and Western railway. An entire day will be devoted to each stop and illustrated lectures nad demonstrations on improved methods of dairying will be conducted morning and afternoon by a corps of expert dairymen, who will accompany the car.

The dairy instruction car has previously toured practically the same territory and the interest it aroused among the dairymen and farmers at every point visited was so keen that Southern Railway is sending it out again to follow up the work and give those who failed to attend before an opportunity to hear the lectures and learn the opportunities which Virginia offers to dairymen who will develop this industry and supply the great home demand for milk and butter. The car is fitted out like a complete farm dairy and carries charts and exhibits, giving complete information about dairying and its problems. Milk samples will be tested and advice given on all questions of interest to dairymen.

Death of Nonagenarian.

Richmond, August 10.—William Frederick Gray, one of the oldest and most respested citizens of Richmond, for many years representative of the French government on the Richmond Tobacco Exchange, died yesterday at the White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., in the ninety-second year of his age. Mr. Gray belonged to one of the oldest Virginia families.

Home Rule Bill.

London, August 10.—It is believed that Premier Asquith will announce today that the house of commons will meet on August 25th only to consider the necessary departmental measures and will then be finally prorogued.

This means that the home rule bill and the Welsh dis-establishment bill will in the ordinary course of procedure become the law of the land some time during the present month.

Bavarians Desert the Colors.

London, August 10.—Telegraphing from Brussels, the correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says.

"The Belgians have blown up the old disused fortress at Liege to prevent the Germans availing themselves of its use.

"It is reported here that many Bavarians are deserting or refusing to join their colors, the idea of fighting the peaceable Belgians, whose Queen is a beloved Bavarian princess, being very unpopular with them."

Jews Fighting Under English Colors.

London, August 10.—The Daily Telegraph today says.

"The Jewish community has been stirred to its depths by the outbreak of war. There is abundant evidence of its earnest desire to associate itself in every way with the steps taken forthe success of our arms and the safety of the empire. Jews are represented in every branch of His Majesty's forces. It is difficult to arrive at the exact number of Jews in the British military service for religious belief is not stated in all cases of enlistment. The Rev. Michael Adler, a Jewish chaplain, compiles figures from time to time, and the numbers always show a large proportion to the total number of Jews in the country. On Wednesday when the recruiting station opened at Whitechapel, many hundreds of eager young Jews came forward to offer their services, as was the case in South Africa."

QUERY OF FRANCE TO AUSTRIA.

Peremptory Demand Made on Envoy to Paris that Stand Be Defined.

Paris, August 10.—A peremptory demand was made on the Austrian embassador by the French foreign office today for a statement of Austrias intentions i nthe present war situation. The ambassador protested that he was without instructions.

The belief here is that the Austrian ambassador is remaining in Paris with the deliberate intention of provoking a declaration of war from France, with the hope of involving Italy on the plea of French aggression.

FIFTH WEEK OF DROUTH.

Rockingham County Farmers Hard Hit by Dry Weather.

Harrisonburg, Va., August 10.—Rockingham county is entering upon the fifth week of the second drouth of the year. Beginning on May 4 the first drouth continued for 47 days, the longest spring drouth in the history of the valley. Toward the last of June there were 10 days of rain and electric storms, following a public prayer for rain by Rev. Frazier Furr in the Methodist Church here.

The last four weeks, however, have seen the return of the drouth, with killing results. Nothing that grows in the ground is normal this year. Many a garden is actually burnt up. There are no verdant lawns, and the general hay crop is about half a full yield.

NEEDLE IN ABDOMEN.

Four Inches of Steel Cut From Boy at Harrisonburg.

Harrisonburg, Va., August9.—A darning needle four inches long was removed a-day or two ago from the abdomen of 10-year-old Bernard West son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas West, four miles north of Harrisonburg.

For several years the lad had complained of severe abdominal pains. Drugs failed to bring relief, and this week, when an abscess had developed, he was rushed to the Harrisonburg Hospital for an operation. The boy will recover.

WAR PREVENTS BRIDAL TRIP.

Professor And Mrs. Howard Unable to go to Germany.

Harrisonburg, Va., August 10.—The European war upset the bridal trip of Professor W. W. Howard and bride, formerly Miss Aurelia Byerley, of Bridgewater, Rockingham county.

They had expected to sail for Germany on last Thursday, where they intended to spend two years studying music under noted masters. They will remain in America indefinitely. Professor Howard lives in Connecticut, while his bride is a daughter of W. A. Byerley, of Bridgewater, a well-known Virginian.

Would Crush Pan-Slavism.

London, August 10.—Some "white paper" deals with the events leading up to the war, and proves that Germany persistently impressed upon Austria that a golden opportunity for crushing Pan-Slavism forever had presented itself.

TERRIBLE SCENES.

Hand-to-Hand Fighting And Bloody Charges on the Streets of Liege.

The Hague, August 10.—The struggle for the possession of Liege has given rise to terrible scenes.

Describing the German attack on Thursday night, the correspondent of the Telegraaf says.

"A force of 2,000 of the invaders penetrated into the town and were received with terrible fire.

"Every house was occupied by armed men and women, and children were carrying ammunition.

"So decimated were the German ranks that they retired in the direction of Vivegnis, only to reform and charge again, headed by cavalry.

"The Uhlans dashed on the town with blood-red sabers gleaming in the moon light.

"The Belgian troops and people fell on them like furies, using knives and revolvers, women and children and gray-headed men all taking part. Boiling water was thrown from the windows along the narrow streets upon the Germans as they retired."

After using the second bottle she was entirely cured." For sale by all dealers.

Had Serious Lung Trouble—Now Well

Sufferers from Lung Trouble are often misled in the belief that nothing will save them. Rest, fresh air, wholesome food and regularity in habits do much in aiding to restore health, but something else is needed. Many people who have taken Eckman's Alterative have testified that it was this medicine which restored them to health. Read this:—

Weldon, Ill.

"Gentlemen: Through your instrumentality I have been saved from a premature grave. On December 14, 1904, I was taken with Typhoid Pneumonia, which developed into Lung Trouble. In February, 1905, I went to Fort Worth, Texas, and later to Canon City, Colorado. After being there two weeks my physician informed me that my case was hopeless. Three weeks later I returned home, weighing 103 pounds, the doctor having given me no assurance of reaching there alive. On July 14, 1905, I began taking Eckman's wonderful remedy for Lung Trouble. Today I weigh 158 pounds, am stout and well and can do any kind of work about my grain elevator."

(Affidavit) ARTHUR WEBB.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most effectious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in rebuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

REQUIEMS FOR MRS. WILSON.

Bells throughout the southern country will toll this afternoon in respect to the memory of Mrs. Wilson, whose mortal remains will be followed by the President and his family to their last resting place at Rome, Ga.

This was meet. The first knell will be heard as the funeral train enters the union passenger station of Alexandria. Similar marks of respect will be heard at different cities between Alexandria and Rome.

Sincere expressions of sympathy have come from every section of the United States for the President and members of his family who are now engaged in the most trying ordeal through which any of us is called to pass—that of following the remains of the mother of a family to the tomb.

The shadows cast by such dispensations are destined to hover around until households are finally gathered with loved ones beyond this vale of tears.

While thoughtful friends go to their limit in attempts to soothe the still cold ear of death and to encourage those who feel the irreparable loss most, virtually nothing can be said or done to gild such poignant sorrows.

There is every reason to believe the President, when he shall have laid aside the burdens of life will rest by the side of her who had followed his fortunes and shared in his joys and sorrows.

When the aged patriarch Jacob, while in a strange land, found himself about to pass into another world, he charged his sons to see that his remains were placed in the cave of Machpelah, by the side of his wife Leah. Mr. Wilson will doubtless be placed by his Leah in the sunny Southern country.

TERRIBLE TRAIN OF CARNAGE.

The war cloud which settled over Europe a few weeks ago is as black as ever, and the serious results of the array of millions of bayonets, while paralyzing commerce in the countries which have been plunged into an almost universal conflict, are felt in North America, where many thousands of persons have been deprived of the means of earning a living by the cessation of imports and the crippling of exports.

Thinking men are attempting to paint the dire distress sure to result should this colossal war continue but a few months. The trade of Germany is virtually at a standstill, and women are now compelled to run farms and look after the crops. Prices of necessaries of life have advanced alarmingly in Berlin and other German cities, while similar conditions are inevitable, sooner or later, in England and France.

In reading of these alarming facts pictures of universal peace which have from time to time been thrown upon the screen by enthusiastic people—Andrew Carnegie and others who have indulged such dreams—are brought to mind.

Victor Hugo once said:

"A day will come when the only battlefield will be the market open to commerce and the mind opening to new ideas. A day will come when bullets and bombshells will be replaced by votes, by the universal suffrage of nations, by the venerable arbitration of a great Sovereign Senate, which will be to Europe what the Parliament is to England, what the Diet is to Germany, what the Legislative Assembly is to France. A day will come when a cannon will be exhibited in public museums, just as an instrument of torture is now, and people will be astonished how such a thing could have been. A day will come when these two immense groups, the United States of America and the United States of Europe, shall be seen placed in presence of each other, extending the hand of fellowship across the ocean."

Present conditions in his own country as well as in other nations of Europe, show he was a little too previous.

The best lawyers tell people to avoid litigation, and the most renowned strategists have ever manifested an aversion to war.

Robert E. Lee once said:

"But what a cruel thing is war, to separate and destroy families and friends, and mar the purest joy and happiness God has granted us in this world, to fill our hearts with hatred instead of love for our neighbors and to devastate the fair face of the beautiful world."

George Washington was a man of peace. He is quoted as having said: "My first wish is to see the whole world at peace, and the inhabitants of it as one band of brothers, striving which should most contribute to the happiness of mankind."

FROM SWEET CHALYBEATE.

(Communicated.)

August 8, 1914.

Editor Alexandria Gazette.

Sweet Chalybeate Springs Hotel is filled to overflowing with people from all over the country and many are being turned away on account of lack of accommodation.

Old Sweet Springs, of this place is fast filling, judging from the automobile crowd each day, passing here for that place.

Sweet Charleybeate is on the border line of Monroe County, of West Va., which is 'dry." I am told that this is the only place where licenses are issued nearer than Lynchburg and it is a common sight to see automobiles here any where from 40 to 100 miles away.

I never did blame the booze, so I am sure they come for the pure mountain air and good water.

The ball room presided over by Mr. Sherman Hammatt and Miss Gerrude Hammatt, from New York and Jacksonville, Florida, presents a gay scene every night.

From 8.30 to 9 nightly the children have full sway and no grown person is allowed unless he or she dances with a child and goes through the intricacies of a wonderful march.

From 9 to 10.30 the grown people young and old, sway, bow, bend, and dip to new fangled half and half, hesitation, one step, Maxixe, Jingles, La Rouse, and many other new fashioned dances ,and at times some of the older people vie with their children and show them how old Virginia people in "Ante-Bellum" days danced, and the "Ole Virginia Reel," makes young again many who stand aside for the younger generation and the grace, poise, and sympathetic swaying of fantastic motion of feet make us wonder, have we advanced.

Yet amidst all the gay scenes of evening and the pleasures of day, there pervades a hushed expectancy as all gather to get day or more old news from home and trembling hands tear each wrapper from home papers which are more in demand now than personal mail to find if loved ones from home, abroad, are being taker care of, and can get back home safe from this unfortunate war.

Among the list of those abroad might be added. Miss Daisy Marshall, and Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Haggarty. They now live in Philadelphia and New York, but I consider them as belonging to us yet.

They were in Rome, July 24th, the last I heard from them.

So I only want to say like "Roxie" I would rather be a lamp post in Alexandria, than be Emperor of Germany.

Sincerely Your Friend.
C. B. MARSHALL.

Tuxedo—the Most Enjoyable and the Most Healthful Smoke

THE most enjoyable smoke is a pipe. But many men deny themselves this pleasure because they have had unhappy experiences with pipe tobaccos.

Likely you have paid 35 cents to 50 cents for a tin of "fancy mixture," and it burned your mouth or throat, or was unpleasantly strong.

Too bad—but you got the wrong tobacco. The hundreds of thousands of men who have tried

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

have found the answer to their smoke problems. Tuxedo is the mildest tobacco made. It cannot bite the tongue or dry the throat.

And it's economical. There are 40 pipefuls in a ten-cent tin. You can't get any better tobacco because nothing better grows than the mellow, perfectly aged Burley leaf used in Tuxedo.

If you try Tuxedo for a month and cut out other smokes, you will not only have had the best month of smoking you have ever had in your life, but you will have made a mighty big saving in your pocket-money!

FUNERAL OF MRS. WILSON.

Services Were Conducted as Desired by Deceased.

Washington, August 10.—Without any formality except that of the church and with all the simplicity which she desired, the funeral of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the President, was held in the East Room of the White House early this afternoon. For the day official business was banished from the Executive Mansion, and Washington, and the nation joined with the President in mourning his dead.

Immediately after the services here the body was taken to Rome, Ga., the burial place of Mrs. Wilson's parents. During the trip through the South the people paid respect by tolling church bells as the special train passed.

Outside the members of the Wilson family, only members of the Cabinet and their wives, the members of special committees from the Senate and House, a few intimate friends and the employes of the White House were present at the services here.

The simple Presbyterian funeral service, without music or singing was conducted by the Rev. Sylvester Beach, of Princeton, N. J., and the Rev. J. H. Taylor, of Washington. It included selections from the Fifteenth chapter of First Corinthians, and the Fourteenth chapter of St. John, short prayers and a benediction.

While the services were in progress both houses of Congress and all Government departments were closed and all flags in the capital were at half-mast . The White House grounds were closed to the public.

The members of the family were taken to the railroad station soon after the services here, and the train left for Rome at 4.35 o'clock, arriving at Atlanta, Ga., at noon Tuesday and at Rome at 2 o'clock. There was a special car for the flowers.

In addition to the President, Miss Margaret Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Sayre and Secretary and Mrs. W. G. McAdoo, those in the funeral party were Professor Stockton Axson, Mrs. Wilson's brother; J. R. Wilson, the President's brother; Geo Howe, the President's nephew; Secretary Tumulty and Dr. Cary T. Grayson, United States Navy. James Woodrow, a cousin of the President, will join the train at Spartanburg, S. C., and Misss Alethea S. Axson; and Miss Carrie Belle Axson, cousins of Mrs. Wilson, at Atlanta.

The President spent yesterday quietly at the White House with his daughters seeing only Secretary Bryan on official business. Messages of sympathy and flowers continued to arrive throughout the day.

BLEW UP HIS OWN HOUSE.

Miner Accused of Holding All At Bay While it Burned.

Cumberland, Md., August 10.—Joseph Whitaker, a miner, of Austen, W. Va., is in jail at Kingston, W. Va., on a charge of arson, which, in this case, covers also the blowing up of his house with a can of powder, He himself sustained severe bruises when the explosive went off.

Whitaker is said to have been drinking and to have become so violent and abusive that his daughter hit him over the head with a poker. She also sent for her brother, who is assistant postmaster at Austen, and when he arrived the father proceeded to carry out his threat to blow up the house if she sumomned aid.

The young man made a lunge to grab the father nad prvent him from carrying out his declared purpose, but Whitaker the elder succeeded in firing the can of powder.

The force of the explosion threw him out of the house, his left arm and left side of the face being badly burned. The house caught fire, but Whitaker picked up large stones and warned everybody to keep away, it is said, the house being destroyed.

Canada's Gift to England.

Ottawa, Ontaria, August 10.—One million bags of flour is the gift of the people of Canada to the people of the United Kingdom. The Canadian parliament will be asked to vote $3,000,000 for the purchase of the flour this week.

The offer was accepted "with deep gratitude," by the mother country and four big milling companies have agreed to have the flour ready for delivery by September. The first shipment will probably be made next week.

MANY AT "BUSH MEETING."

Visiting Ministers Deliver the Sermons at Leesburg.

Leesburg, Va., August 10.—A large crowd attended the exercises at the Purceville "bush meeting" yesterday. At the morning service the Rev. James Cannon, D. D., of Richmond, delivered the sermon, while the Rev. C. M. Compher of Lynchburg, preached in the afternoon and evening. There will be a moving picture exhibit this evening.

KILLED IN DUEL.

Frecling, Va., August 10.—Word has been received here by telephone of a duel in which four mountaineers in Fleming, Ky., were killed in a battle that followed a quarrel over an election. The affair has stirred up a Kentucky feud, and it is feared other shootings will follow.

Details of the killings are meagre because of the remoteness of the place and the poor telephone connection. An election for school trustees was being held in the district of Wright's Fork of Boone Creek, in Letcher County, at which feeling grew very warm. As a result of this feeling, Marion Hall, Albert Hall, Alec Hall, and another Hall, whose first name could not be learned, became involved in a difficulty with William Quellen, his son Ira, and Maynard Hall. Revolvers were brought into play and after some skirmishing the three Halls brothers who fought on the side of Marion and the younger Quellen were dead. Marion Hall was shot twice through the arm.

INVESTIGATE MURDER.

Man with Throat Cut Is Found Dead in Lumber Yard.

Roanoke, Va., August 10.—While walking through a lumber yard here early Saturday, a workman found William McNamara, of Portland, Me., lying on the ground with his throat cut from ear to ear.

At first it was thought to be a case of suicide, but later this theory was abandoned, the police deciding that it was a clear case of murder.

It was thought that McNamara was attacked, dragged into the yard, robbed and slashed with a razor. McNamara was a stranger here, and no clue to the murderers is known.

END IS IN SIGHT.

Washington, August 10. — Although administration leaders in Congress believe the regular business of the session can be completed soon after September 1, some of them fear possible emergencies that may arise through the war in Europe will make it imperative that Congress remain in Washington. Talk about the Capitol, however, is that if developments of the next few weeks indicate no trouble in prospect for the United States, the signal may be given to wind up the legislative program and adjourn for the fall campaign.

Several Senators point to the fact that great alarm would have been aroused when the European nations clashed. With banks demanding emergency currency legislations, Congress would have been called in extra session. The passing of the emergency currency amondment, and the progress already made toward emergency shipping legislation, Senators declared, have done much to allay fears. The Senate plans to pass the latter bill on Tuesday.

The Clayton antitrust bill, to supplement the Sherman law, then will be taken up. Senate and House conferees meanwhile will endeavor to agree on the Federal trade commission bill.

The Foreign Relations Committee is undertaking to comply with the urgent request of the President, that the new peace treaties with twenty foreign nations be ratified.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death.

Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength.

If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

Get a bottle of Cardui to-day.

A party of English women, who have just come through Balicia, tell thrilling stories of an incident on the Austro-Russian frontier, near Cracow, Galicia, when a Russian aeroplane began dropping bombs on a small town near Cracow. Two Russian officers were in the aeroplane, which was built for three persons. The vacant space was filled with bombs. After the aviators had done considerable damage with their missiles the Austrians succeeded in bringing down the aeroplane with a field gun. The two officers, who were wounded severely, but not seriously, were taken prisoners.

Tree Under Which Sunday School Picnic Party Had Gathered Struck—Many Stunned.

Twelve persons were also badly stunned.

Roof was leaning against the tree and Courtney was in a rope swing with George Everett when the tree was struck. It was necessary to force open the boy's hands, which clung to the ropes before he could be released. Edward Kinsell and wife, Minter Moore and Everett were severely stunned.

The woods was crowded with picnickers and a panic followed. Women and children wept and wrung their hands. Most of those stunned soon recovered.

The frame barn on the farm tenanted by Samuel Walters, near Roxbury, also was struck by lightning and burned, with 300 bushels of wheat, the season's hay crop, harness and farming implements, entailing a loss of $5,000, partly in-
